Andrea

SUPPORT WORKER

Attentive, creative and encouraging

Andrea values helping people feel heard and comfortable being themselves. She builds rapport through active listening and shared interests.

She brings a creative, adventurous approach to everyday skills and community activities, encouraging confidence, choice and independence.

She enjoys arts and crafts, colouring, baking and walks, and volunteered with animals at Taronga Zoo as a teenager.

ANDREA'S RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Budgeting and money handling
  Practising spending choices, checking what is affordable and organising money for everyday expenses.
- Planning and social confidence
  Agreeing on activities and timeframes, with encouragement to interact and connect through shared interests.
- Household routines
  Sorting clothes, laundry and gentle reminders to help people stay organised and maintain their living space.
- Community access and appointments
  Transport, shopping and practical errands, plus supportive conversation before and after appointments.

ANDREA'S SUPPORT STYLE

Andrea listens carefully and uses shared interests to help people feel heard, comfortable and confident in their abilities.

She explains plans and timeframes to make activities more predictable. She offers gentle prompts and praise, respects personal choice and gives people space when they need it.

She may be a great match for someone who enjoys crafts, baking, animals, games or outdoor activities, and values a thoughtful approach to building independence.
