Bella

SUPPORT WORKER

Attentive, adaptable and encouraging

Bella enjoys celebrating achievements and helping people build independence, make their own choices and work towards their goals.

Growing up as a child of Deaf adults, she brings lived experience and an ongoing connection with the Deaf community to her support work.

She loves spending time with her children, finding new parks and exploring activities together.

BELLA'S RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Adapting communication
  Rephrasing questions and using shorter explanations to help people understand and participate.
- Community access and choice
  Trivia nights, movies and meals out, supporting people to explore options and make their own decisions.
- Appointments and pacing
  Transport to rehabilitation and therapy appointments, with check-ins and space to rest or decompress.
- Team communication and planning
  Reviewing progress notes, recognising successes and preparing discussion points for consistent support.

BELLA'S SUPPORT STYLE

Bella listens, notices how people are feeling and adapts communication so they can feel included and understood.

She gives people time to respond and respects when they need a quiet break. She encourages personal choices, checks in regularly and celebrates progress and achievements.

She may be a great match for someone who values Deaf community connection or enjoys trivia, movies and social outings, with support that adapts to their needs.
