Daniel

SUPPORT WORKER

Patient, positive and easygoing

Daniel, known as Dan, has over three years of support work experience and brings patience, empathy and a can-do attitude.

He enjoys helping people get outdoors, build everyday independence and do the things they love, with time for a relaxed chat too.

He enjoys surfing, frisbee, skating, yoga, playing guitar and finding op-shop bargains.

DANIEL'S RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Active community participation
  Bushwalks, frisbee, gym visits and outings that support participation and staying active.
- Everyday independence
  Cleaning and household routines, grocery shopping and support to make considered purchases.
- Appointments and errands
  Transport to appointments and local services, with reassurance while people speak for themselves.
- Social connection
  Community clubs, shared interests and games, with encouragement to socialise in group settings.

DANIEL'S SUPPORT STYLE

Daniel brings a friendly, patient approach and takes time to understand what each person wants from their day.

He offers ideas and encouragement while respecting choice. He adapts plans to energy levels and wellbeing, including quieter activities at home when needed.

He may be a great match for someone who enjoys the outdoors, sport, music, op shops or games, and values an easygoing, encouraging support worker.
