George

SUPPORT WORKER

Friendly, practical and good-humoured

George enjoys helping people and making everyday tasks enjoyable. He brings humour, life experience and a genuine interest in getting to know others.

After around 40 years as a chef, he moved into healthcare and works as a Patient Support Assistant, assisting with patient care and manual handling.

He enjoys spending time with his family and five sons, and keeps active with judo and long-distance running.

GEORGE'S SUPPORT EXPERIENCE

- Cooking and kitchen support
  Shopping for ingredients, preparing and cooking meals, and cleaning up after cooking.
- Encouraging participation
  Letting people lead familiar tasks and contribute their knowledge, choices and directions.
- Appointments and community access
  Transport to appointments and practical errands, with conversation and reassurance along the way.
- Building rapport
  Getting to know people through conversation and humour, helping them feel comfortable with support.

GEORGE'S SUPPORT STYLE

George takes a friendly, down-to-earth approach, using conversation and humour to build a comfortable connection.

He brings practical experience to cooking and everyday tasks while encouraging people to take the lead. He values making support enjoyable and recognising what each person can contribute.

He may be a great match for someone who enjoys cooking, conversation or getting out, and values practical support from someone with broad life experience.
