Ross

SUPPORT WORKER

Reliable, honest and encouraging

Ross enjoys making people laugh, introducing new experiences and helping people develop their strengths and independence.

His background includes Sailability, holiday getaways and helping school leavers with work experience and transitions to work.

A lifelong Central Coast local, he enjoys sailing, bushwalking, fishing, football and cricket.

ROSS'S RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Cooking and meal preparation
  Supporting weekly cooking routines, preparing meals in batches and cleaning up afterwards.
- Shopping and everyday choices
  Grocery shopping, local errands and encouragement to make independent decisions.
- Active community access
  Basketball, bowling and waterfront walks, adapting outings to the weather and personal interests.
- Daily routines and connection
  Prompts for personal routines, family visits, shared games and preparing for community activities.

ROSS'S SUPPORT STYLE

Ross uses humour, clear communication and shared interests to help people feel comfortable and involved.

He encourages people to take an active role in everyday tasks and recognises growing confidence. He balances practical support with choice and opportunities to try something new.

He may be a great match for someone who enjoys sport, the outdoors, sailing or games, and values an honest, reliable worker with a sense of humour.
