Yvonne

SUPPORT WORKER

Kind, positive and motivating

Yvonne, known as Von, enjoys helping people feel good about themselves and develop skills that build confidence and independence.

She brings patience, encouragement and practical problem solving to everyday routines, appointments and getting out in the community.

She enjoys family time, running, the gym and beach holidays in her caravan with a good book.

YVONNE'S RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Everyday routines and home skills
  Prompts for personal routines and support with laundry, bed-making, ironing and garden tasks.
- Cooking and meal preparation
  Preparing lunches and practising cooking skills, including supervised use of the barbecue.
- Appointments and communication
  Transport, booking follow-up appointments and help to understand questions and explain needs.
- Memory and community confidence
  Patient prompts for recall, directions and shopping tasks, plus support with electronic payments.

YVONNE'S SUPPORT STYLE

Von uses kindness, positivity and patient encouragement to help people feel comfortable trying things for themselves.

She gives people time to remember, make choices and practise skills. She adjusts prompts to the day and offers reassurance when community activities feel unfamiliar or stressful.

She may be a great match for someone who wants to build everyday confidence and routines, enjoys getting out, and values a kind, motivating support worker.
